Professional Council Meeting
March 10, 2017

In Attendance: Tracy Amyx, Roxie Deer, Diane Kenny, Teresa Price, Carla Bowen, Kierstan Barbre, Darla Lane, Sally Saydshoev, Liz Ferris, Jaime Rippey, Nichole Mann

Today's meeting was led by Secretary Tracy Amyx, as President Cherie Dolehanty was unavailable during the meeting. One agenda item was brought forward for today's meeting.

Student Government Association (SGA)

SGA representatives Lyndsie Trumbo and Taylor Webster attended the meeting to make an announcement regarding SGA Nominations. Nominations for the 2017-2018 academic year are open from 3/6-3/27. Ms. Trumbo and Ms. Webster are requesting Professional Council members to nominate students who are motivated and have displayed leadership skills on campus. Students who are nominated must have a 3.3 cumulative GPA and should commit to a few hours per week to the organization. SGA currently has 14 active members but will be losing 6 seniors this year. If a member would like to nominate a student, they can email Lyndsie or Taylor with their names.

The meeting was opened up for any announcements.

Career Services (Sally Saydshoev)

Sally discussed the Professional Clothing Closet that took place this past week in Whitewater Hall Lobby. Sally reported that over 200 items were given out to students. The Closet will return to the Graf Center in Fall 2017, and then back to Whitewater Hall Lobby in Spring 2018. Hosting the Closet it in two different locations allows for different populations to have access to the event.

Sally also reported that the 4 Colleges Career Fair is coming up on March 28th at Earlham's Athletic and Wellness Center. Students should pre-register at the Eventbrite page. There are over 50 employers registered. Sally urged PC members to encourage students to participate in this opportunity to find employment.

Title IX (Tracy Amyx)

Tracy discussed the upcoming events for April's Sexual Assault Awareness Month. Scheduled events include: Denim Day, Take Back the Night March and Vigil, Hot Wings and Hot Topics, Clothes Line Project, Human Sex Trafficking Presentation, Online and On-Campus Scavenger Hunts, Bystander Intervention, R.A.D. Informational Session, and a Poetry Slam . Tracy encouraged all campus offices to participate in awareness and education efforts by decorating their space in teal for the month. Tracy will be providing a flyer for offices to have available as well.

Meeting was adjourned at 11:20 a.m.. Next meeting will take place on Friday, April 14, 2017 at 11:00 a.m. in WZ 120.
