Restructuring of the School of Humanities and Social Sciences

The faculty members of the School of Humanities and Social Sciences (HSS) have approved restructuring the School into three internal departments: The Department of Arts and Culture; the Department of English; and the Department of Social Sciences. In keeping with the Constitution of the Indiana University East Faculty Senate, the School of HSS functions as an academic unit headed by a Dean. The three departments of HSS are headed by chairpersons who report to the School Dean. The restructuring does not require a revision to the Constitution of the Indiana University East Faculty Senate.
