

Proposal to Join NAIA

Whereas Indiana University East athletics supports the campus mission of providing opportunities for “students to grow intellectually and socially in a personalized, supportive and scholarly learning environment focused on student success”, and

Whereas Indiana University East athletics supports the continued growth of the institution by recruiting and retaining students and providing them with a quality collegiate athletic experience that allows them to obtain learning skills that enhance their academic experience, and

Whereas Indiana University East athletics is committed to the development of expanded student opportunities that further elevate our status as a regional baccalaureate and graduate degree granting institution,

Therefore, be it resolved Indiana University East athletics move from club sports to national association with the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) and join the regional Kentucky Intercollegiate Athletic Conference.