

NEGOTIATION PARAMETERS

All new faculty will receive a computer as a standard part of their office package and as acknowledgment of the technological focus of our campus. Further, all new faculty will receive up to $750 towards documented moving expenses plus fifty percent of their documented moving expenses over $750. This amount may not exceed the maximum amount allowed by the board of trustees. Money for professional development, networking, etc. will continue to be negotiable items used as incentives. Summer teaching opportunities, however, will remain the purview of the Division Chair and should not be offered as incentives for coming to IU East.

Passed by IUE Faculty Senate April 1, 1997
