With Brazil's national, state, and local municipal experience as a backdrop, students will spend 11 intensive days learning firsthand about social movements and their role in reconstructing society for the benefit of the majority. Students will meet with national and regional labor and social activists, visit the sites of popular decision making and political conflict, and explore the multiple ways in which the Brazilian people participate in the process of economic, social, and political transformation in Latin America's largest country. The excursion will also include visits to museums and historical sites inviting students to examine the rich Brazilian culture and the multiple forms of cultural expression in the Southern region. For information, contact Dr. Bill Mello at wmello@iupui.edu or call Craig Campbell at 800-822-4743.

Travel to the country of Brazil will occur ... dates to be announced. Students will be responsible for the cost of travel, passports, and visas in addition to tuition and associated fees for the course. Students must obtain a valid passport by January 1, 2012 in order to apply for the visa. Prior to traveling to Brazil students are required to complete assigned readings and previously arranged course discussions as part of their course work as well as complete their written assignments by the end of the spring 2012 semester.
