Martin Luther King, Jr. CELEBRATION 2020

“Darkness cannot drive out darkness, only light can do that.”

THE RACE CARD PROJECT
Wednesday, January 22 – Saturday, January 25
Whitewater Hall Lobby
The Race Card Project invites people from all walks of life to share their opinions, beliefs, observations, and experiences on race and culture. Opening in an empty gallery. Stop by to post your own six-word sentence or read the sentences of others.

KEYNOTE LECTURE: MLK Jr.'s Beloved Community Regains
With You
Tuesday, January 28, 7 p.m.
First Bank Richmond Community Room, Whitewater Hall
Speaker: John Bailey, Ph.D.
A reception will follow after the lecture.

MOVIE: The Hate You Give
Thursday, January 23, 7 p.m.
Turner Theatre, Main St.
Starr Carter is constantly struggling between two worlds—the poor, mostly black neighborhood where she lives and the wealthy, mostly white prep school that she attends. The uneasy balance between these worlds is disturbed when she witnesses the fatal shooting of her childhood best friend and the hands of a police officer in uniform causing his death. Carter must decide to stand up for what’s right.

PANEL DISCUSSION: Stories of Resistance, Persistence & Empowerment from the Civil Rights Era
Tuesday, January 28, 7 p.m.
Whitewater Hall Lobby
What does it mean to be a high school football player in Kentucky? Powerful companions in Indiana to the freedom rides in Alabama. What was the Ku Klux Klan? A group of local community members and high school students from across the country will discuss the Civil Rights Movement in person and keynote.

COMMUNITY DISCUSSION with the Diversity and Inclusion Council
Wednesday, January 29, 11 a.m.
Community Engagement Commons
This event will feature community members from all walks of life to discuss and share their experiences in the wake of events surrounding the death of George Floyd. The purpose of the discussion is to bring together community members to share experiences and discuss how they can work collaboratively toward the goal of creating a more inclusive community.
