

Library Resources Form for New Degree, Program or Course Proposals
(updated March 2, 2018)

This part to be completed by requester:

Name of Degree, Program or Course: _____

Provide examples of the kinds of research students will be doing for this degree or course assignments:

Requester's Signature/date

This part to be completed by librarian:

Check which statement is most appropriate:

The library has ample resources to support this program/degree/course.

The library has a satisfactory amount of resources to support this program/degree/course.

The library requires additional resources to support this program/degree/course.

This program/degree/class does not require library research.

The following library databases will support the research required for this program/degree/class:

The library does not have appropriate resources for this program/degree/class. The following materials are required to support this degree: (list name and cost)

Librarian's Signature/date